Dear Students,

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you to Swami Shraddhanand College, University of Delhi, on the occasion of the commencement of the new academic session and the Orientation Programme to be held on 18th August 2026.

You are now becoming a part of a vibrant institution known for its academic commitment, values, and student-centred environment. Our sparkling campus, quality faculty, supportive staff, and positive ambiance are designed to help every student learn, grow, and excel. Whether you have joined an undergraduate or postgraduate course, I encourage you to make full use of the opportunities available in academics, sports, cultural activities, research, and community engagement.

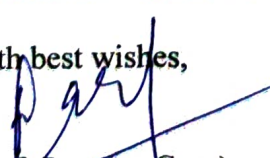

The orientation programme will introduce you to the college, its academic systems, facilities, societies, and support services. I urge all students of all courses to attend the programme with enthusiasm and openness.

As you begin this important journey, I would also like to emphasize the significance of regular attendance, discipline, punctuality, and respectful conduct. These qualities are essential not only for academic success but also for building a strong and responsible personality.

Our teachers are committed to guiding you with dedication and care. I am confident that your years at Swami Shraddhanand College will be enriching, memorable, and transformative.

I wish each one of you a successful, joyful, and inspiring college life, and I sincerely hope that you build a bright, rewarding, and amazing career for yourself and contribute meaningfully to society.

With best wishes,

(Prof. Parveen Garg)
Principal
